

ALPINE ONE

Company Presentation

Alpine One at a glance

- ❖ Alpine One is a niche leadership advisory firm, founded by Manuela and Franz Herrlein, two very experienced business professionals with an international multi year track record in both, industry and consulting business.
- ❖ Alpine One is a boutique. On purpose. We believe that this enables us best to dedicate enough time to our clients.
- ❖ Alpine One's focus is on people. The firm's DNA is based on the strong belief that developing individuals and teams is the key element for delivering results that matter. All this combined with a strong corporate culture.

Our aim are long term partnerships with a focus on accelerating individual and team performance and building a culture of excellence to support commercial success.

Alpine One brings in a unique set of experiences

During our professional careers we covered many different roles which helps us to understand our clients individual needs and to develop tailor made solutions.

Founded in 2016 Alpine One is fast growing

We are a team of ten, continuously working on broadening and deepening our service offering:

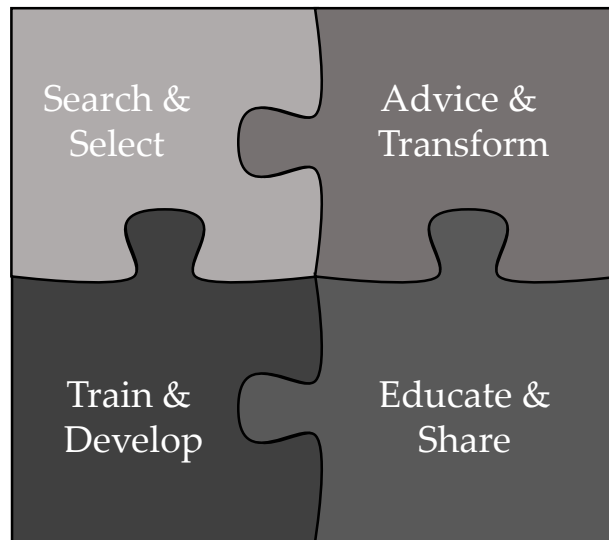

- ❖ During the last months more than 250 executives participated in our trainings, some of them in up to three different formats
- ❖ We conducted over 70 workshops e.g. on leadership development, client management, business transformation and change management
- ❖ We developed an international talent assessment and development program and conducted partner trainings for an US management consulting firm
- ❖ We supported a German corporate bank on its finance department transformation
- ❖ We currently serve several CEOs on vision and strategy development
- ❖ And much more...

We believe that our work has to be tailored to each clients specifics.
